

Top tips to help keep kids safe online.

Here are some tips and tricks to help protect kids when posting on social media.

- 01 Turn on comment filters and block offensive & inappropriate words.
- 02 Using privacy settings are ideal, but if not make sure that parents are in charge of the account.
- 03 For young kids, parents can include in their bio that the account is being monitored by parents.
- 04 Check all content to make sure no personal information is being given away in the foreground or background of video content and avoid tagging locations, schools & clubs.
- 05 Don't include first & last names, school details, sporting club names, or other location-revealing information.
- 06 Where possible, turn off the ability for strangers to send direct or private messages.
- 07 Turn off geolocation for social media apps.
- 08 Familiarise yourself with block & report buttons and other safety tools on the app.

Hint

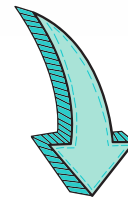

TikTok has lots of them!

Top tips to help keep kids safe online.

Here are some tips and tricks to help protect kids when posting on social media.

“ Turn on comment filters and block offensive & inappropriate words. ”

Using privacy settings are ideal, but if not make sure that parents are in charge of the account.

For young kids, parents can include in their bio that the account is being monitored by parents.

Check all content to make sure no personal information is being given away in the foreground or background of video content, and avoid tagging locations, schools & clubs.

“ Don't include first & last names, school details, sporting club names, or other location-revealing information. ”

Where possible, turn off the ability for strangers to send direct or private messages.

Turn off geolocation for social media apps.

Familiarise yourself with block & report buttons and other safety tools on the app.

Hint

TikTok has lots of them!

